

HON. DANIEL OBAL

Public Policy Advisor | Continental Youth Leader | Pan-African Diplomat

EXECUTIVE PROFILE

Hon. Daniel Obal is an eminent Ugandan legal scholar, public policy advisor, and leading voice in pan-African youth governance. Currently serving as Senior Presidential Aide in charge of Youth Affairs to the President of Uganda, he acts as a bridge between grassroots youth demographics and high-level political and economic decision-making. Combining legal expertise with deep socio-political acumen, his leadership spans local, regional, and continental spheres.

CURRENT LEADERSHIP ROLES

- Senior Presidential Aide & Public Policy Advisor (Youth Affairs), State House Uganda
- Head of Secretariat, Continental Youth Development Programs
- Ad-hoc Committee Member, AU Committee on Youth Engagement
- Executive Patron, Federation of African Law Students (FALAS)
- Founder & Team Leader, Youth in Business Uganda

VISION FOR AFRICA

Daniel Obal champions a future where Africa's youth move from being statistics to decision-makers. His policy framework focuses on institutionalized governance, economic empowerment, entrepreneurship, educational transformation, and preventative peacebuilding across the continent.

KEY ACHIEVEMENTS

- Convener of the 3rd APRM Continental Youth Symposium in Kampala.
- Keynote speaker at major continental platforms including FALAS Africa Youth Congress at the AU Headquarters.
- Contributor to the AU's 1 Million Next Level Initiative.
- Collaborator on cross-regional youth leadership initiatives across Africa.
- Recipient of the prestigious Young Achievers Award.

AT A GLANCE

- Senior Presidential Aide
- Public Policy Advisor
- AU Youth Governance Contributor
- Pan-African Diplomat
- Continental Youth Development Leader
- Executive Patron, FALAS
- Founder, Youth in Business Uganda

SPEAKING TOPICS

Youth Governance
Public Policy
Agenda 2063
Economic Empowerment
Entrepreneurship
Peacebuilding
Pan-African Leadership